

Smith's Provides Essential Tools for Ice Anglers

Success Awaits with Smith's RegalRiver Ice Fishing Tool Kit

Hardwater adventures are tough on gear. Nothing separates the contenders from the pretenders like bone-chilling cold, piercing wind and a moonscape of jagged ice and hard-packed snow. To work here – to survive here – equipment must be engineered to exacting specifications and packed with functional insights specific to the challenges of ice fishing. At ICAST 2022, Smith's Consumer Products – the Edge Experts since 1886 – will introduce the RegalRiver Ice Fishing Tool Kit: A collection of seven essential tools designed to connect hardwater anglers with many seasons of success.

Smith's RegalRiver Ice Fishing Tool Kit is perfect for both run-and-gun ice anglers and groups spending weekends in a hard house. Toothy fish like pike and walleyes are common targets through the ice, so Smith's tool kit includes a 9-inch Jaw Spreader to safely remove hooks and reduce damage to fish destined for release. Unhook fish and cut line and leader easily using a 6.5-inch Stainless Steel Pliers and Line Scissors combo, complete with a convenient Sheath and belt hook. Trim knots to perfection using a handy Line Clipper, perfect for use with gloved hands. Clean a mess of panfish using Smith's new 4-inch Folding Flex Fillet Knife. Collect all these essential ice fishing tools in one place using Smith's marine-grade Mesh Tool Bag, perfect for stowing in a bucket or sled, mounting on a snow machine, or hanging in a shelter.

With an MSRP of $84.99, Smith's RegalRiver Ice Fishing Tool Kit fills a critical need for hardwater anglers, gathering ice fishing's essential tools into one convenient collection. Don't drill a single hole without it!
